

JUDGE TOM Coatoam, left, prepares to register the first Harlequin ever registered in the United States. Owner of the convention winning doe is Ford, Pa. The doe is shown in a typical Rev. Richard Frank, right, of Watercal pose and displays her "V" shaped ears to advantage. The stripes are clearly visible on the side along with the split markings on the head.